

The 28-lesson beginner 2 course focuses on topics revolving around daily communication. It covers general daily and practical conversation. The course is structured to help you build up a solid Pinyin foundation and develops your ability to speak and listen. Following the 28 lesson course, you can expect to communicate with native speakers in the topics/social situations presented above and below.